

Telnet's Research and development team is committed to providing customized solution and expertise to enable companies to deal with unaddressed needs and improve their operations. We will apply our expertise and proven processes to resolve complex problems within the Telecom sector.

We are innovative and creative with out of the Box thinking. Our goal is to modernize, automate, ease the process, and reduce redundancy to allow companies to operate efficiently and stay on the cutting edge.

Here is a brief description of some of our wide variety of sophisticated solutions provided to Wireless Industry:

Software Development

- NOC Center
- Database Consolidation
- Script programing
- Online Project management tool
- Online Data Exchange platform
- Recruiting and Resume Management
- Mass email delivery
- Inventory tracking system

Hardware development □ □ □ □

Transmitter

Lazar Azimuth Measurement
Remote monitoring center