

Technical Outsourcing

Telnet provides technical talent in a wide variety of disciplines from helpdesk professionals to the most cutting-edge software architects. We are recognized by our clients as a standout vendor in providing technical outsourcing for all their IT staffing and Engineering needs. We use our dedicated in house recruiting staff and custom developed recruiting and tracking system (RTS) to respond quickly, and with top talent, to our client's staffing requirements. Our professionals provide expert services in the following categories:

Engineering Resources

- RF Engineering
- Microwave Engineering
- In-Building/DAS Engineer
- Optimization & Test Engineer
- GIS Specialists
- Project & Program Management

IT Resources

- Software Engineering
- Database Design/Admin
- Web Application Development
- Network Administration
- Call Center/Help Desk Support
- Systems Engineering
- Network Engineering

Through our proven Staffing Quality Process we are able to deliver quality technical experts that meet your technical skill requirements. Through our recruiting process we:

- Take the time to understand your business, IT initiatives, and work environment.
- Leverage our referral network and job databases we maintain daily
- Screen every resume, host face-to-face interviews, conduct technical assessments, and perform detailed reference checks prior to presenting candidates to you.
- Consistently communicate with our customers and technical professionals throughout the project

Our long-term relationships with employees and clients have been built in an environment of integrity and commitment, with a shared goal of mutual success.

